Hon'ble J. C. S. Rawat, J.

Heard Sri G. S. Negi learned counsel for the applicant and learned A.G.A. for the State.

Perused the record. It has been alleged in the furd recovery that the complainant stated that she brought money and she handed over the money to the accused. On this, the trap party immediately arrested the applicant-accused with the tinted notes. The learned counsel for the applicant contended that there is no evidence that the trapping party had heard the conversation between the accused and the complainant that the money was being given to the accused for the illegal gratification. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case, it is a fit case for bail.

Let the applicant-accused be released on bail on executing a personal bond and two sureties each in the like amount to the satisfaction of the Special Judge, Anti-Corruption Act, Dehradun.
